I was born in Cairo and I have lived there all my life. When I was little, I always loved to draw and paint, but I found reading and writing very difficult. At school, I didn't always understand the work and it was really hard. I thought I wasn't very clever.

Then my parents and the school decided to take me for some tests. They discovered that I had dyslexia. This means it is difficult for my brain to read and spell. After that, I got more help and I started to understand more.

When I took my exams, I got really good results ! I was surprised and happy. Later, I got a prize for my art and then I decided I would like to be an artist one day. Now, I volunteer at a charity for other children with dyslexia and teach them about art.
